Our School Agreement

The five outcomes of the recent Every Child Matters legislation (2003) encourage schools to ensure that all students adopt a healthy lifestyle, feel safe and secure, that they enjoy their studies and achieve their potential. It also charges all schools to ensure that each an every child makes a positive contribution to their own future, their school and their local community. It also states that every child should be ready to take up the challenges of employment or further education. (Our school agreement uses the principles of Every Child Matters to underpin its home-school agreement).

As a student at Waseley Hills High School, I shall:
